my first name is Shahaf and I was born in Israel. I studied art for four years in the "Midrasha" school of art and education. My major was photography and painting, and when i didn't have time to paint, i started to do artistic makeup on my photography models. My biggest inspiration in my photography is from paintings and art. I love when the colors collides. After art school i studied "Ashtanga" yoga for two years, and it brought another point of view for my photography that helped me to Guide my models in posing.

As a fashion photographer, I worked with many professional models, but I wanted my own team, so I founded a little agency with 4 models that I chose to represent. This select group is where I feel I can invest myself professionally with a personal touch within the framework of an amiable team atmosphere. Efrat, Dana, Coral and Rony, they are my team and photography Muses.

KAWS

Brian Donnelly (born 1974), professionally known as KAWS, is a New York-based artist and designer of limited edition toys and clothing. He currently lives and works in Brooklyn, New York.

KAWS was born Brian Donnelly in Jersey City, New Jersey. He graduated from the School of Visual Arts in New York with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in illustration in 1996. After graduation, KAWS briefly worked for Disney as a freelance animator painting backgrounds. He also contributed to the animated series 101 Dalmatians, Daria and Doug.

He began his career as a graffiti artist growing up in Jersey City, New Jersey. Later moving to New York City in the 1990s, KAWS started subverting imagery on billboards, bus shelters and phone booth advertisements. These reworked advertisements were at first left alone, lasting for up to several months, but as KAWS' popularity skyrocketed, the ads became increasingly sought after. In addition to New York, KAWS has done work in Paris, London, Berlin and Tokyo.

In the late 90s, KAWS began to design and produce limited edition vinyl toys, “an instant hit with the global art toy-collecting community,” especially in Japan, where this genre is well respected and widespread. More toys and later clothing were made for Original Fake, a recent collaborative store with Medicom Toy, in the Aoyama district of Tokyo where an original limited edition product is released each week. KAWS has also participated in other commercial collaborations with Nigo for A Bathing Ape, Jun “Jonio” Takahashi for Undercover, Michael “Mic” Neumann for Kung Faux, snowboard projects with Burton, and sneakers with Nike and Vans. His most recent collaboration was with Comme des Garçons. As of August 2010, it is reported that Kaws has designed a limited edition bottle for Dos Equis, a Mexican beer brand. The bottle was released in Mexico in early September 2010.

KAWS’ acrylic paintings and sculpture have many repeating images, all meant to be universally understood, surpassing languages and cultures. One of KAWS’ early series, Package Paintings, was made in 2000. This series, entitled The Kimpsons, subverted the famous American cartoon, The Simpsons. KAWS explains that he “found it weird how infused a cartoon could become in people’s lives; the impact it could have, compared to regular politics.”

In addition, KAWS has reworked other familiar icons such as Mickey Mouse, the Michelin Man, the Smurfs, and SpongeBob SquarePants.

Recent solo exhibitions include OriginalFake at the Bape Gallery in Tokyo (2003) where his sculpture "Wonderful World" sold for $400,000.[citation needed] KAWS has been periodically showing both paintings and products at Colette in Paris since 1999. His work is included in the traveling exhibition Beautiful Losers, which started at the Cincinnati Contemporary Art Center and will be traveling through 2009 throughout the US and Europe, including his largest museum show to date, which will be held at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta, Georgia.

KAWS's "Companion," a grayscale figure based on Mickey Mouse with his face obscured by both hands, was adapted into a balloon for the 2012 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade as part of the parade's "Blue Sky Gallery" feature.

For the 2013 MTV Video Music Awards KAWS's company redesigned the iconic moonman statue.

For over 20 years working as a professional photographer, first as a landscapist, collaborating with the Mondadori Group's magazines (Bell'Italia Bell'Europa, Airone), and in the last 15 years in the fashion industry (campaigns, editorials and catalogues).

Obsessive researcher, passionate about art and beauty in all its forms, continues to use light to draw his inner world. A lover of perfection takes care of the creation of his images from capture to post production.

KAM is a New York / Istanbul based studio, established in 2010 by Atalay Yeni, working on a wide variety of projects, focusing mainly on Photography. KAM STUDIO aims to go beyond what's in our minds and in the clients' minds when they start a project, to take the challenge a little further both in terms of technique and of concept, and to always end up with a contemporary and fresh result.

Ata Kam has a fascinating point of view which is revealed in his photographs. Regardless whether he shoots fashion, people, landscapes or creates shots from his travels his captured points in time and on specific locations are showing a feel of casual observation and reality. His images are not just shots which show life but they basically are life and the world around us themselves.

In photography what he ultimately interested in is that moment of transcendence, where one is transported into another place, into a perfect, still world or it's own nature.

Víctor Soria, born August 5, 1989, is the fashion editor, photographer and director of UMNO Magazine International. A monthly fashion magazine with an unique concept. See www.umnomag.com

His style is aggressive and sexual, sometimes unexpected, but always with a special care in details and a charming touch. Focusing in offering a high fashion quality through the use of affordable clothing mixed with designer pieces, always with the collaboration of the best agencies in the entire fashion industry.

Travelling regularly around Barcelona, Madrid & Paris, there is no defined headquarters for him.

Martyna Gumuła was born in September 14, 1988 in a small countryside. She graduated from Wyższa Szkoła Humanistyczna in Gdańsk, where she studied journalism and PR. She's been a devoted artistic photographer for five years and a lover of fashion photography for a year. Martyna tries to present the original way of doing the whole work. She's dedicated, persistent and ambitious in pursuit of her own dreams.

Martyna wasn't looking for it, photography found her itself, in moments of sadness or despair she took the camera. Later she became overwhelmed with fascination for women, trying to reveal their souls she dipped in art photography creating her own style of capturing moments and post-production, few years later she started to search the completely new way until she was fascinated by beautiful simplicity, so she started to learn and create her own fashion portfolio. She says, that she will never be perfect, because there's nothing worse than self-aggrandizement, you should learn during the whole life.

She was also publicated in such magazines as Invited Magazine, Confashion Magazine, LaMode Info, Live & Travel, Prestiż, Nous Magazine, Positive Magazine, Modo Magazine, Invision Magazine, Vogue It.

Martyna takes photographs from passion and with passion. When you ask her a question, whom she would like to be for the whole life, she answers that she can't imagine her life without what she does now – photography.

My name is Natalia Koinova and I am photographer from Saint-Petersburg, Russia. I started making my first pictures in 2009, learned art photography, tried various directions and finally found what I love the most. Fashion photography is my real passion. I studied fashion photography in Milano, my pictures took part in exhibition in Cologne and one of the pictures, made for young russian designer, was exposed at Palazzo Morando Costume Museum in Milan this summer.

I admire the beauty of the models and trying combining it with works of the designers, giving the most of my vision to the whole picture. I like making my personal shootings expressing my current mood through the lenses of the camera. I really hope you enjoy my next shooting that is called : "Black and white" that was inspired by the idea of combining opposite images of the same model.
